Dear Mr. [Redacted]

I sincerely hope that you will accept my apologies for the delay in answering your telegram of July 15, 1951, regarding your employment by the Central Intelligence Agency. General Smith asked me to make this reply for him and for some reason, known only to Government offices, your telegram was mislaid and has just come to light.

I suggest that you withhold making application for employment until such time as a definite date of availability may be established. If you will get in touch with me at that time, I shall see that the proper forms are forwarded to you and will, of course, follow through from there.

If I can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to let me know.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
